MADE TEA

madeteas

madeteas.com

Profile

Made grew up in a Balinese farming family, where she learned firsthand everything she knows about agriculture. From a young age, she strived to fulfill her passion of being a faithful guardian of Mother Nature. Tea inspiration began when Made went to a Sunday market in Dublin and discovered the vast world of teas from around the globe. Influenced by her experience, she went to Mumbai to learn how to make chai tea. On 15 July 2015 she decided to devote her life to innovating teas, and Made Tea was established. When she returned to Bali, her focus was to cultivate the wondrous variety of local plants and herbs. Her plan, that has now flourished into an international and award- winning success, was to share with the world the dream of improving health, the happinesss & wellbeing through creation of unique, uplifting teas.

BILLITON SPICE

billitonspice

Profile

Billiton Rempah Indonesia has a fascinating story that began in the beautiful island of Belitung in Indonesia. It all started with Naskafa Tjhin, the founding father, who established a plantation farm in 1991 out of his passion for agriculture and spices. The journey began humbly, with just 5 acres of land in the first year. However, through years of experience and dedication, the plantation expanded to 10 acres, allowing Billiton to meet the growing demand for their exceptional spices. Peppercorn, often referred to as the "King of Spice," plays a vital role in enhancing the flavors of various dishes. Billiton takes pride in producing exceptional peppercorn, ensuring that it contributes to the culinary world's vibrant and diverse flavors. We also collaborate closely with local farmers to ensure that we can consistently meet the demands of the market.

billitonspice

Profile

Billiton Rempah Indonesia has a fascinating story that began in the beautiful island of Belitung in Indonesia. It all started with Naskafa Tjhin, the founding father, who established a plantation farm in 1991 out of his passion for agriculture and spices. The journey began humbly, with just 5 acres of land in the first year. However, through years of experience and dedication, the plantation expanded to 10 acres, allowing Billiton to meet the growing demand for their exceptional spices. Peppercorn, often referred to as the "King of Spice," plays a vital role in enhancing the flavors of various dishes. Billiton takes pride in producing exceptional peppercorn, ensuring that it contributes to the culinary world's vibrant and diverse flavors. We also collaborate closely with local farmers to ensure that we can consistently meet the demands of the market.

Made grew up in a Balinese farming family, where she learned firsthand everything she knows about agriculture. From a young age, she strived to fulfill her passion of being a faithful guardian of Mother Nature. Tea inspiration began when Made went to a Sunday market in Dublin and discovered the vast world of teas from around the globe. Influenced by her experience, she went to Mumbai to learn how to make chai tea. On 15 July 2015 she decided to devote her life to innovating teas, and Made Tea was established. When she returned to Bali, her focus was to cultivate the wondrous variety of local plants and herbs. Her plan, that has now flourished into an international and award- winning success, was to share with the world the dream of improving health, the happinesss & wellbeing through creation of unique, uplifting teas.

Profile

Anfiha is a modest fashion label built on the fusion of edginess and elegance. Every ready-to-wear piece is designed as a statement of individuality, letting women express who they are through clothing that is both comfortable and confidently stylish, without sacrificing modest values. What sets Anfiha apart is its refusal to choose between modesty and boldness, proving both can coexist beautifully in one wardrobe.

Profile

Rendang is one of the most delicious Minangkabau dishes that truly represents the essence of Indonesian cuisine. Katuju aims to go beyond the traditional by developing Minangkabau cuisine not only to be renowned in Indonesia, but also to gain recognition on the global stage. Our hope is that Katuju will become a symbol of modern Minangkabau cuisine authentic yet adaptable, and embraced by people around the world. Guided by this vision, we define the spirit of Katuju as: "Authentic Minangkabau Cuisine, Typical Indonesian Taste."

The word "Katuju" comes from the Minang language, meaning desired, liked, or loved. The Katuju Indonesia logo symbolizes the five human senses, as they are essential to truly appreciating food. It reflects how we experience taste through tasting and feeling, sight through presentation, hearing through sound, smell through aroma, and touch through texture. These senses together form a complete culinary experience one that Katuju aspires to deliver.

Puri aren cair is a superior product from puri food and healthy which is an organic or herbal product because the raw material comes from original palm sap tapped directly by puri aren cair farmers in the Stabat area, Langkat Regency, North Sumatra. Puri Aren cair is only made from fresh palm sap and without any additives or preservatives. Puri aren cair has a fairly high local wisdom value because the tapping and cooking process is still traditional and conventional because it still uses firewood. However, even so, the tagline of puri aren is "downstream does not have to be factory" and puri aren cair has entered the national or retail (modern) market and the international market. Puri aren cair has fostered aren farmers totaling around 20 aren farmers to maintain the sustainability of the raw materials from the puri aren.

billitonspice

Profile

Billiton Rempah Indonesia has a fascinating story that began in the beautiful island of Belitung in Indonesia. It all started with Naskafa Tjhin, the founding father, who established a plantation farm in 1991 out of his passion for agriculture and spices. The journey began humbly, with just 5 acres of land in the first year. However, through years of experience and dedication, the plantation expanded to 10 acres, allowing Billiton to meet the growing demand for their exceptional spices. Peppercorn, often referred to as the "King of Spice," plays a vital role in enhancing the flavors of various dishes. Billiton takes pride in producing exceptional peppercorn, ensuring that it contributes to the culinary world's vibrant and diverse flavors. We also collaborate closely with local farmers to ensure that we can consistently meet the demands of the market.

Made grew up in a Balinese farming family, where she learned firsthand everything she knows about agriculture. From a young age, she strived to fulfill her passion of being a faithful guardian of Mother Nature. Tea inspiration began when Made went to a Sunday market in Dublin and discovered the vast world of teas from around the globe. Influenced by her experience, she went to Mumbai to learn how to make chai tea. On 15 July 2015 she decided to devote her life to innovating teas, and Made Tea was established. When she returned to Bali, her focus was to cultivate the wondrous variety of local plants and herbs. Her plan, that has now flourished into an international and award- winning success, was to share with the world the dream of improving health, the happinesss & wellbeing through creation of unique, uplifting teas.
