LAWÉ foundation was founded based on the interest of the founders about traditional hand-woven. The artisans face the same challenge, they have limitations in marketing their work, and feel unable to compete with the modern industrial fabrics. They were only able to produce hand-woven fabric sheets and scarves, there's less product diversification.

LAWÉ creates functional products with the traditional hand-woven as the main material. This is a big opportunity for making traditional hand-woven accepted in modern market. LAWÉ organizes more-less 30 artisans until now. LAWÉ collaborate with the artisans to create and developing the product design of traditional hand-woven.

Product Development

LAWÉ transforms Indonesia traditional hand-woven into functional products.

Product

LAWÉ produces high quality products. LAWÉ's production team always control the quality of each products. Some of LAWÉ's products are: bag, souvenir, meeting kit, home decor and etc.

Distribution

LAWÉ distributes the products through online marketing, consignment with some fair trade shop, and through nasional and international exhibitions.

Empowering Programs

LAWÉ gives some training as empowerment program, therefore: product development training, natural dye training, and reuse of fabric waste.

LAWE as a Community Social Enterprise

As a community of social enterprise, LAWWE has a social program focusing on developing the potential skill of the people who join LAWWE. LAWWE product design was created according to market needs and the ability of the artisans. LAWWE standpoint is improvement the lives of artisans, not only the design value.

LAWWE gives knowledge sharing to the artisans in order to achieves the mission of conserving traditional hand-woven. LAWWE shares the knowledges about color harmony, color trend based on market needs, quality improvement of producing hand-woven, and motives development.

LAWWE gives some trainings as a form of women empowering program. LAWWE gives product development training, natural dye training, to bussiness start-up training. LAWWE Craft Class is LAWWE's latest program in empowering women. It teaches housewives and students in creating products from fabric waste, and this is free, no charge.

LAWWE also receives internships. Until now there are students from School of Special Education, Playen, Yogyakarta; community groups Sawahlunto, West Sumatra; practical work and thesis students from various universities. LAWWE latest internships student are Student from University of La Rochelle, France; and School of Special Education Pembina, Yogyakarta.

Sisterhood of LAWWE

In manifesting our dream to develop traditional weaving and to empower Indonesian women, Lawe developing Sisterhood program.

Lawe embraces women from other region who have the same concern; developing their traditional weaving in their own regions.

Lawe gives some facility to Sisterhood, such as:

- Facilitating the development of design
- Producing export quality product
- Developing joint markets and opening up discussions among sisters, where learning and sharing occurred.

Right now, LAWWE'S Sisterhood are in North Sumatra, Riau, South Sumatra, Lampung, Central Java, Bali, West Kalimantan, South Sulawesi, and West Nusa Tenggara.
