

ALLANA

UPCYCLE FABRIC

CAT ALOGUE

Allana is taken from the merging of the names of the two business owner's children, namely Aulia and Maulana. The trade name has received legality and is now established as PT Allana Maju Berdaya. Starting from a hobby of making knick-knacks and something unique, and seeing the large amount of unused fabric waste, we ventured to process the fabric waste for production in early 2006. With the minimum capital, we selling through school and office bazaar events.

Craft is a handicraft business, especially in the development of fabrics craft. Allana's products are almost 100% handmade, Our production capacity is 3000-4000/month for accessories and 250-500/month for home decor.

We are creating community needs by producing that is environmentally friendly and reducing the unemployment rate. By buying our products means participating in saving the environment by pouring creativity and in empowering women.
